VENUE: Cober Hill, Cloughton, near Scarborough

Cober Hill is a conference centre/guest house 6 miles north of Scarborough, on the coast about a mile from the sea. It is about 2 hours by car from Leeds or by train to Scarborough then bus or taxi.

A modern wing of the building is booked exclusively for YLSS with all rooms en suite.

There's a large hall with piano, a lounge and rooms for smaller groups or individual practice.

Further information is available at www.coberhill.co.uk

ACCOMMODATION:

There are 32 places available, in a mix of single and twin rooms. All rooms have en suite WC, bath and/or shower. Towels are provided.

If you would like a single room, please book early!

If you are willing to share, please arrange a room-sharer yourself and save £40 each!

Please note on the booking form if you have any dietary or access requirements.

THE WEEKEND: Friday 25 May - Sunday 27 May 2018 (Spring Bank Holiday weekend)

This will be another fun and friendly music-making weekend, with three inspiring tutors - Andrew Watkinson, Margaret Moseley and Miriam Roycroft - covering all bowed strings for 'late starters' of any standard. A tutor will work especially with less experienced players, providing simplified parts as needed, but please come willing to be stretched!

The programme will be a mix of playing together in a large group and smaller ensembles, as well as technique/sectional sessions. There will be chamber groups for beginners and for more experienced players. Or you can take time out to relax, walk to the beach, find the village pub, or whatever suits you.

Room keys and self-service refreshments will be available from 3pm on Friday. Practice rooms will be available from then for anyone to use.

The first session of the weekend, for early arrivals, will start Friday at 5pm.

Dinner is at 7pm, followed by a full orchestra session.

The weekend finishes on Sunday at 5pm, following a playthrough and tea.

THE STUDY DAY: Monday 28 May 2018 - 10am - 5pm (Spring Bank Holiday Monday)

As in previous years, there is the opportunity to take part in a Study Day on Bank Holiday Monday, led this year by Miriam Roycroft, cellist and very popular conductor with YLSS. This is open to everyone, of any standard, who is keen to work on more challenging music. You can book just for the day, with or without accommodation on Sunday night, or add it on to the weekend.

MUSIC: Music will be emailed to everyone who has booked, in advance, for the weekend and the Study Day, for you to print out yourself.
